

The 'Red Top,' the Barkley barber shop was located third door south of St. Clair on the west side of Main. The three barbers are William, Jack and Fred (left to right). The calendar at the back is just too faint to determine the date. Picture is from L. D. Bartholemew.

Professor O. D. Thompson was superintendent of schools in Romeo for 25 years. He is shown here with his sons Fred, Omar, Charles and one unidentified. He retired from Romeo in 1900 and joined the county school office. Picture is from L. D. Bartholemew.

Mrs. Ella Randal reports this is George Lock's team in about 1909. Location appears to be Main street although buildings do not match other pictures of that era.

Stamped on the back of this post card is the inscription: George H. Washer, dealer in Hand Made Harness, horse furnishing goods, boots, shoes, etc., Romeo, Mich. Store was the third door south of St. Clair on east side of Main. Picture is from William Phillips.

This picture postcard shows Orville Cole driving Neil Gray's dray team. The scene is back of Streeter's barn on East Lafayette. Date is not identified. Picture is from William White.

Jesse Cain and Sperm Crane are shown at the Buckeye Stave Mill which was located along the railroad near the present County Road Commission buildings. Cain and Crane were stave joiners in the barrel factory. Picture is from William White.